

Here are some wonderful prosperity and general blessings that can bring you great manna and wisdom.

- The only thing in this universe that remains constant and does not change is that: things change! Where you are today is not where you will be tomorrow, next week or next year.
- God is my partner. His guidance leads me to great prosperity I leave all the stress, strain and hard decisions to Him.
- Begin & end each day by asking for and listening for and expecting specific guidance about all your projects and being grateful for that guidance, and that guidance will always come.
- Imagine your financial independence
- Concentrate on your vision
- Mentally accept the vision by filling your life with pictures of life you want to and like to lead.
- Divine substance is the one and only reality in this situation. Divine substance does not fail to manifest itself in appropriate form here and now.

Morning Mantra

I expect lavish abundance every day and in every way in my life and affairs. I specifically give thanks for the lavish abundance today.

Prosperity Meditation

When I find myself in a financial wilderness, I am preparing for a greater abundance than I have ever known before. My wilderness experience is my divine initiation into the higher levels of supply. I am being freed from all fear of lack. As I look to God for guidance and supply, I am becoming financially independent on a daily basis.

I can gather my manna by first using something close at hand to meet my need. Be it ever so humble, when I use what is close at hand, my good multiplies. I can begin to gather my manna by doing something fearless. The act of blessing what is on hand increases it mightily. Something mysterious happens when I bless the substance at hand. Instead of envying another's prosperity, open the way for increased supply to come to me.

Since words are creative, I can gather my manna through speaking forth definite rich words of supply even in the face of lack. My manna is always something close at hand, and I always have in my immediate midst. Whatever is needed to begin gathering my manna. As I bless the manna close at hand, and fearlessly use it, it multiplies. Lord I do give thanks for the abundance that is mine now!
